

MANAGING DIRECTOR BIOTECH CLUSTER

biosaxony is a dynamic Life Sciences Cluster in Saxony, Germany. Within the biosaxony cluster management, a Managing Director is needed to steer the strategic development and lead the operations of the network.

Job Description

- Provide information to internal & external stakeholders
- Manage communications & interface with press
- Support local firms in international collaborations, EU projects and others
- Organization of events, seminars, workshops and participation in trade fairs
- Generate impulses for collaborative projects within and beyond Saxony
- Initiate technology transfer
- Manage biosaxony working groups on life sciences-specific topics
- Location: Dresden, Germany
- Reports to Executive Board of biosaxony e.V. – the industry member organization in Saxony

Job Requirements

Education

- Academic degree (PhD or corresponding degree desirable)
- Working experience in Life Sciences industry, technology transfer and/or cluster management
- Understanding of Life Sciences products markets
- Comfortable in working in an international environment

Experience

- International (project) management experience in life sciences, health care and/or the pharmaceutical, medtech or biotech industries
- Proven leadership capacities in life sciences, health and/or health care
- Operating comfortably in the international public/ private arena

Attitude & Communication Skills

- Comfortable in a dual leadership position with director business and finance
- Cooperative, integrative and open nature + attitude
- Acknowledges added value of multidisciplinary cooperation and acts accordingly
- Fluent in German & English
- Interested in developing regional clusters

Start Date & Duration

- Starting as soon as possible in 2011
- Initial contract will be limited to three years with the potential for extension

Contact

biosaxony e.V.
Chairman
Roland Göhde
Tatzberg 47
01307 Dresden

Tel. +49 170 233 5500
Email goehde@biosaxony.com